

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF AUCKLAND SAFEGUARDING UPDATE SPRING 2021

VOLUNTEERS

- We have now identified over 2000 volunteers working alongside children, youth and vulnerable adults in our Diocese
- We have trained approximately 2500 clergy, religious, staff and volunteers, and processed approximately 2000 police vetting applications

SAFEGUARDING WITH A DIFFERENCE

- Working alongside our Pasifika and Ethnic communities we continue to provide Safeguarding workshops that are relevant to all who attend
- We are also working with our ethnic communities to translate core Safeguarding documents helping to reduce communication barriers
- We are developing a set of images to describe core safeguarding practices for those who acquire knowledge differently
- During Covid 19 lockdowns we are delivering Safeguarding workshops and carrying out Safeguarding reviews via Zoom

PARISH SAFEGUARDING REVIEWS

- Our parish review program continues with the completion of 33 parish reviews to date. Planned completion date December 2021
- All parishes have embraced the process and shown true commitment towards A Safe Church for Everyone Every day

SUPPORTING CHILD PROTECTION WEEK

- The organization Safeguarding Children is celebrating its 10th Anniversary with the launch of Child Protection week 5-11th September 2021
- We at the CDA agree that Child Protection week should be everyday of every week and strive to make this possible in our parishes and entities
