Kenehi Ūpoko 3⁹⁻¹⁵

The LORD called out to the man and asked, "Where are you?" The man answered, "I was naked, and when I heard you walking through the garden, I was frightened and hid!" "How did you know you were naked?" God asked. "Did you eat any fruit from that tree in the middle of the garden?" "It was the woman you put here with me," the man said. "She gave me some of the fruit and I ate it." The LORD God then asked the woman, "What have you done?" "The snake tricked me," she answered. "And I ate some of that fruit." So the LORD God said to the snake: "Because of what you have done, you will be the only animal to suffer this curse — for as long as you live, you will crawl on your stomach and eat dirt. You and the woman will hate each other; your descendants and hers will always be enemies. One of hers will strike you on the head, and you will strike him on the heel." Ko te kupu a te Ariki. Whakamoemiti

Reta Tuarua ki Koriniti Úpoko 4^{13 - 5. 1}

In the Scriptures it says, "I spoke because I had faith." We have that same kind of faith. So we speak because we know that God raised the Lord Jesus to life. And just as God raised Jesus, he will also raise us to life. Then he will bring us into his presence together with you. All of this has been done for you, so that more and more people will know how kind God is and will praise and honour him. We never give up. Our bodies are gradually dying, but we ourselves are being made stronger each day. These little troubles are getting us ready for an eternal glory that will make all our troubles seem like nothing. Things that are seen don't last for ever, but things that are not seen are eternal. That's why we keep our minds on the things that cannot be seen. Our bodies are like tents that we live in here on earth. But when these tents are destroyed, we know that God will give each of us a place to live. Ko te kupu a te Ariki. Whakamoemiti Areruia, areruia, ki te aroha tētahi ki ahau, e puritia e ia taku kupu. Ka arohaina ia e tōku Matua, ka haere atu māua ki a ia. Areruia.

Ka tae a Hēhu ki te kāinga, huihui mai anō te mano, ā, kīhai rawa rātou e āhei te kai. Ā, ka rongo ōna whanaunga, ka haere mai ki te pupuri i ā ia: i mea hoki rātou, kua pōrangitia ia. Na, ka mea ngā Kaituhi i tae iho i Hiruhārama, “Kei ā ia a Perēhepura, ā, nā runga i tā te rangatira o ngā taimona tāna peinga taimona.” Na, ka karangatia rātou e ia, ā, ka kōrero whakarite ki a rātou, “Me pēhea a Hātana ka pei ai i a Hātana? Ki te whawhai hoki tētahi rangatiratanga ki ā ia anō, ekore taua rangatiratanga e tū. Ā, ki te whawhai tētahi whare ki ā ia anō, ekore taua whare e tū. Ā, ki te whakatika a Hātana ki ā ia anō, kua oti ia te wehe, ekore hoki e tū, engari he mutunga tōna. Ekore te tangata e āhei ki te tomo ki te whare o te tangata kaha, muru ai i āna mea, ki te kore ia e mātua here i taua rangatiratanga kaha. Ko reira anō muru ai tōna whare. He pono tāku ka mea atu nei ki a koutou: Ko ngā hara katoa o ngā tamariki a ngā tāngata e whakakāhoretia, me ngā kōrero kino hoki e kōrero ai rātou. Tēnā ko te tangata e kōrero kino ana ki te Wairua Tapu, ekore e whai whakakāhoretanga tāna, ēngari hei hara tēnā mōna ā āke, āke. I pērā ai ia nō te mea i kī rātou, he wairua poke tōna. Na, kua tae mai tōna whaea rātou ko ōna tēina, a ka tū i waho, tono tangata ana ki ā ia ki te karanga i ā ia, “Na, tōu whaea me ū tēina, kei waho e rapu ana i ā koe.” Na, ka whakahokia e ia ki a rātou, ka mea, “Ko wai tōku whaea? Ko wai hoki ōku tēina? Na, ka tirotiro ia ki te hunga e noho ana i tētahi taha ōna, i tētahi taha, ā ka mea, “Na, tōku whaea, ōku tēina hoki. Ko te tangata hoki e whakarite ana i te hiahia o te Atua, ko ia tōku teina, tōku tuahine, tōku whaea hoki.” Ko te Rongo Pai a te Ariki.

GOSPEL

Ch 3²⁰⁻³⁵

Jesus went back home, and once again such a large crowd gathered that there was no chance even to eat. When Jesus' family heard what he was doing, they thought he was crazy and went to get him under control. Some Teachers of the Law of Moses came from Jerusalem and said, "This man is under the power of Beelzebul" Jesus told the people to gather around him. Then he spoke to them in riddles and said, "How can Satan force himself out? A nation whose people fight against each other won't last very long. And a family that fights won't last long either. So if Satan fights against himself, that will be the end of him. How can anyone break into the house of a strongman and steal his things, unless he first ties up the strongman? Then he can take everything. I promise you that any of the sinful things you say or do can be forgiven, no matter how terrible those things are. But if you speak against the Holy Spirit, you can never be forgiven. That sin will be held against you for ever. Jesus said this because the people were saying that he had an evil spirit in him. Jesus' mother and brothers came and stood outside. Then they sent someone with a message for him to come out to them. The crowd that was sitting around Jesus told him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside and want to see you." Jesus asked, "Who is my mother and who are my brothers?" Then he looked at the people sitting around him and said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who obeys God is my brother or sister or mother." The Gospel of the Lord. Praise be to you Lord
