ENGLISH TEXT: Contemporary English Version

FIRST READING

Exodus Ekorehu 24³⁻⁸
Moses gave the Lord's instructions to the people, and they promised, "We will do everything the LORD has commanded!" Then Moses wrote down what the LORD had said. The next morning Moses got up early. He built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up a large stone for each of the twelve tribes of Israel. He also sent some young men to burn offerings and to sacrifice bulls as special offerings to the LORD. Moses put half of the blood from the animals into bowls and sprinkled the rest on the altar. Then he read aloud the LORD's commands and promises, and the people shouted, "We will obey the LORD and do everything he has commanded!" Moses took the blood from the bowls and sprinkled it upon the people. Next he told them, "With this blood the LORD makes this agreement with you." Ko te kupu a te Ariki.

Whakamoemiti ki te Atua.

WAIATA WHAKAUTU 113 / 114

Wāhakaūtu. Areruia

What must I give you LORD, for being so good to me? I will pour out an offering of wine to you. Wā. Areruia
You are deeply concerned when one of your loyal people faces death. I worship you LORD, and you have rescued me from the chains of death. Wā. Areruia
I will offer you a sacrifice to show how grateful I am, and I will pray. I will keep my promise to you when your people gather at your temple. Wāhakaūtu. Areruia

TUHITUHI TAPU TUARUA

Hebrews. Reta ki ngā Hīperu 9¹¹⁻¹⁵
Christ came as the high priest of the good things that are now here. He also went into a much better tent that wasn't made by humans and that doesn't belong to this world. Then Christ went once for all into the most holy place and freed us from sin for ever. He did this by offering his own blood instead of the blood of goats and bulls. According to the Law of Moses, those people who become unclean are not fit to worship God. Yet they will be considered clean, if they are sprinkled with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a sacrificed calf. But Christ was sinless, and he offered himself as an eternal and spiritual sacrifice to God. That's why his blood is much more powerful and makes our consciences clear. Now we can serve the living God and no longer do things that lead to death. Christ died to rescue those who had sinned and broken the old agreement. Now he brings his chosen ones a new agreement with its guarantee of God's eternal blessings.

Hāto Maaka

14^{12-16,22-26}

Na, i te rā tuatahi o te Taro Rewenakore, i te wā e patua ai te reme o te Pākate, ka mea ngā ākongā ki a Hēhu, "Kohea tāu e pai ai kia haere mātou ki te whakapai, kia kai ai koe i te reme a te Pākate?" Ā, ka tonoa e Hēhu tokorua o āna ākongā, ka mea ki a rāua, "Haere ki te pā, ā, ka tūtaki mai ki a kōrua he tangata e mau ana i te kāhaki wai; aru i muri i ā ia. Ā, ko te wāhi e tomo ai ia, ka mea atu kōrua ki te rangatira o te whare, 'E mea ana te Kaiwhakaako, kei hea te ruma kai, e kai ai ahau me āku ākongā i te reme a te Pākate?' Ā, ka whakaaturia e ia ki a kōrua he ruma kai i runga, he mea nui, kua oti te whakapai. Hei reira taka kai mā tātou." Na, haere ana ngā ākongā, ā, ka tae ki te pā, ka kitea tāna i kōrero ai ki a rāua, ā, taka ana e rāua te reme o te Pākate. Ā, i a rātou e kai ana, ka mau a Hēhu ki te taro, ka whakapai, ka whawhati, ka hoatu ki a rātou, ā, ka mea, "Tangohia! Ko tōku tinana tēnei." Na, ka mau ia ki te karihe, ka whakawhetai, ā, hoatu ana ki a rātou, "Ko tōku toto tēnei o te kawenata hou, meake ringihia mō te tini. He pono tāku ka mea atu nei ki a koutou, ekore ahau e inu i te hua o te aka waina a mua ake nei, kia tae rā anō ki taua rā e inumia houtia ai e ahau i te rangatiratanga o te Atua." Anō, ka mutu ta rātou waiata whakapai, ka haere ki maunga Oriwa. Ko te Rongo Pai a te Ariki.

HOLY GOSPEL

Saint Mark.

14^{12-16,22-26}

It was the first day of the Festival of Thin Bread, and the Passover lambs were being killed. Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal?" Jesus said to two of the disciples, "Go into the city, where you will meet a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him and when he goes into a house, say to the owner, 'Our teacher wants to know if you have a room where he can eat the Passover meal with his disciples.' The owner will take you upstairs and show you a large room furnished and ready for you to use. Prepare the meal there." The two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover meal. During the meal, Jesus took some bread in his hands. He blessed the bread and broke it. Then he gave it to his disciples and said, Take this. It is my body." Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God. He gave it to his disciples and they all drank some. Then he said, "This is my blood, which is poured out for many people, and with it God makes his agreement. From now on I will not drink any wine, until I drink new wine in God's kingdom. Then they sang a hymn and went to the the Mount of Olives. The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
