

Nau mai! Haere mai! Pax Christi Aotearoa-New Zealand invites you to David Wakim Memorial Lecture

Professor Mazin Qumsiyeh

Public meeting: A Palestinian Christian perspective on Israel/Palestine conflict. Building understanding and solidarity with the Palestinian people.

Professor Mazin Qumsiyeh served at US universities, including Tennessee, Duke and Yale. He is the founder and volunteer director of the Palestine Institute for Biodiversity and Sustainability (PIBS) at Bethlehem University. Qumsiyeh has authored several books, including Sharing the Land of Canaan and Popular Resistance in Palestine, on topics ranging from the environmental impact of colonisation to environmental and climate justice. He helped plan major empowerment projects with farmers, women, and children. He was presented with the Paul K. Feyerabend Foundation award and other prizes. palestinature.org

As a dual Palestinian-American citizen, a Christian, and an academic with knowledge of the Holy Lands over 2000 years, he has exceptional insights to share on the present conflict in Gaza. He has spoken at Archbishop Desmond Tutu's church in South Africa. qumsiyeh.org
