Readings from the Gospel of Mark

As Jesus started to leave, a man ran to him and fell on his knees before Jesus. The man asked, "Good teacher, what must I do to have life forever?"

Jesus answered, "Why do you call me good? Only God is good. You know the commands: 'You must not murder anyone. You must not be guilty of adultery. You must not steal. You must not tell lies about your neighbor. You must not cheat. Honor your father and mother.'"

The man said, "Teacher, I have obeyed all these things since I was a boy."

Jesus, looking at the man, loved him and said, “There is one more thing you need to do. Go and sell everything you have, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me.”

He was very sad to hear Jesus say this, and he left sorrowfully, because he was rich.

Then Jesus looked at his followers and said, “How hard it will be for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

The followers were amazed at what Jesus said. But he said again, “My children, it is very hard to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

The followers were even more surprised and said to each other, “Then who can be saved?”

Jesus looked at them and said, “For people this is impossible, but for God all things are possible.”

Peter said to Jesus, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, all those who have left houses, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, or farms for me and for the Good News will get more than they left. Here in this world they will have a hundred times more homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and fields. And with those things, they will also suffer for their belief. But in this age they will have life forever.

Please remember in your prayers:

- Many families and our precious Deaf community are struggling with money and making their money buy what they need. Even food is so expensive. We pray the Lord will provide a way for everyone who is suffering. Let’s support each other and look out for each other.
- Remember all those sick or have friends or family in the hospital this season. Pray for fast healing and that God will comfort their hearts in his time.

- Also, people grieving or feeling alone are worried, Pray God's peace be with you and guard your heart.
- Let us pray for God's peace and salvation over the darkness and crisis in this world. We pray that in all the situations people find themselves in, the Holy Spirit would bring a change of heart and His presence of Peace.

Birthdays in October

Happy Birthday to dear Kylian Lee Pillay
Happy Birthday to dear Ngawaiata Hau!
Happy Birthday to dear Anton Cadelis!
Happy Birthday to dear Carol Brady!
Happy Birthday to dear Randinie Cadelis!

We give thanks to your parents who loved you; we thank your family who looked after you, and we give thanks to all those whose lives have crossed yours and moulded you into you. We give thanks to God, who dreamed and formed you into you.

And all our other friends and family who have October birthday celebrations, may God bless you and keep you always in God's tender, loving care.
