TUHITUHI TAPU TUATAHI

Exodus Ekorehu Úpoko 3
 One day Moses was taking care of the sheep and goats of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, and Moses decided to lead them across the desert to Sinai, the holy mountain. There an angel of the LORD appeared to him from a burning bush. Moses saw that the bush was on fire, but it was not burning up. "This is strange!" he said to himself. "I'll go over and see why the bush isn't burning up." When the LORD saw Moses coming near the bush, he called him by name, and Moses answered, "Here I am." God replied, "Don't come any closer. Take off your sandals — the ground where you are standing is holy. I am the God who was worshipped by your ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob." Moses was afraid to look at God, and so he hid his face. The LORD said: "I have seen how my people are suffering as slaves in Egypt, and I have heard them beg for my help because of the way they are being mistreated. I feel sorry for them, and I have come down to rescue them from the Egyptians. I will bring my people out of Egypt into a country where there is good land, rich with milk and honey." Then Moses said, "I will tell the people of Israel that the God their ancestors worshiped has sent me to them. But what should I say if they ask me your name?" Then God said to Moses: "I am the eternal God, so tell them that the LORD, whose name is 'I am' has sent you. This is my name for ever, and it is the name that people must use from now on."

Whakautu: Kī tonu te Ariki i te aroha me te atawhai.

The Lord is compassion and love.

With all my heart I praise the LORD, and with all that I am I praise his holy name! With all my heart I praise the LORD! I will never forget how kind he has been. Whakautu: Kī tonu ... The LORD forgives our sins, heals us when we are sick, and protects us from death. His kindness and love are a crown on our heads. Whakautu: Kī tonu te Ariki ...

For all who are mistreated the LORD brings justice. He taught his law to Moses and showed all Israel what he could do. Whakautu: Kī tonu te Ariki i te aroha ...

How great is God's love for all who worship him? Greater than the distance between heaven and earth. Whakautu: Kī tonu.

Corinthians Pauro ki te hunga o Koriniti Úpoko 10
 I want to remind you all, how our fathers were all guided by a cloud above them and how they all passed through the sea. They were all baptised into Moses in this cloud and in the sea; all ate the same spiritual food and all drank the same spiritual drink, since they all drank from the spiritual rock which followed them, as they went: and that rock was Christ. In spite of this, most of them failed to please God and their corpses littered the desert. These things all happened as warnings for us, not to have the wicked lusts for forbidden things that they had. You must never complain: some of them did, and they were killed by the Destroyer. All this happened to them as a warning, and it was written down to be a lesson for us who are living at the end of the age. Those who think themselves safe must be careful that they do not fall. HOLY GOSPEL

Luke Ch. 13
 About this same time Jesus was told that Pilate had given orders for some people from Galilee to be killed while they were offering sacrifices. Jesus replied: "Do you think that these people were worse sinners than everyone else in Galilee just because of what happened to them? Not at all! But you can be sure that if you don't turn back to God, every one of you will also be killed. What about those eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Do you think they were worse than everyone else in Jerusalem? Not at all! But you can be sure that if you don't turn back to God, everyone of you will also die." Jesus then told them this story: "A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard. One day he went out to pick some figs, but he didn't find any. So he said to his gardener, 'For three years I have come looking for figs on this tree, and I haven't found any yet. Chop it down! Why should it take up space?' The gardener answered, 'Master, leave it for another year. I'll dig around it and put some manure on it to make it grow. Maybe it will have figs on it next year. If it doesn't you can have it cut down.' The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus ..
